Course Description:

These classes are designed to accommodate the advanced teenage German learner who has had several years of instruction and wants to maintain and improve his/her skill in a fun and age-appropriate social setting. Priority in class instruction will be given to oral skills for communication about teenage topics. Teens may bring a snack to class.

The course runs 15 weeks per session with 60 minute classes once a week and is suitable for students who want to improve their German skills both in reading and writing with the ultimate goal to pass the DSDII test.

The student:

- Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- Can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken.
- Can produce simple connected text on topics that are familiar or of personal interest.
- Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans
